

NZ School Journal ARTICLES
School Journal Part 1, Number 1, 1990
and
School Journal Part 4, Number 1, 1988

[» PDF
Printable
Version](#)

[TOTAL: 18
marks]

Learning Media Ltd, Wellington, NZ
Learner's Grid©, <http://www.learnersgrid.com>
AJBerghuis, 2002-20

[Online
version –
click here](#)

School Journal Part 1, Number 1, 1990
The Fox and the Tiger - June Walker Leonard Sub-Total = 6 marks

[1] On page 3, the fox is called "clever". Was the fox really clever? Justify your opinion. [3 mks]

[2] Complete a Cause and Effect Map [\[Help! What is this?\]](#) for the following effects:

- The Tiger hesitates to eat the fox
- The animals run for their lives
- The Tiger leaves the fox alone [3 mks]

School Journal Part 1, Number 1, 1990
Garage Sale - Jill Brasell Sub-Total = 5 marks

[3] What was the reason for the garage sale? [1 mk]

[4] The author's emotions were quite different before the garage sale and after. Explain. [2 mks]

[5] Was the garage sale successful? Justify your opinion [\[Help! What is this?\]](#). [2 mks]

School Journal Part 1, Number 1, 1990
Whirlwind - Wanda Cowley Sub-Total = 4 marks

[6] Construct a Flow Map [\[Help! What is this?\]](#) based on the plot of this story. [4 mks]

School Journal Part 4, Number 1, 1988
Beetle's Tale - Bea Hamer Sub-Total = 3 marks

[7] Facts and Opinions. Say whether each statement below is a Fact or an Opinion:
a) Life was difficult for Beetle      b) Beetle liked eating wood.      c) Beetle and his relatives were helping to cause the house to fall down.      d) The humans easily figured out the problem with the house
e) Life in the woodpile would be easy [3 mks]