

NZ School Journal ARTICLES
School Journal Part 3, Number 3, 1990

[» PDF
Printable
Version](#)

[TOTAL:
22 marks]

Learning Media Ltd, Wellington, NZ
Learner's Grid©, <http://www.learnersgrid.com>
AJBerghuis, 2002-20

[Online
version –
click here](#)

Protecting Our Kaimoana - a conversation with Eddie Waitoa Sub-Total = 8 marks

- [1] Eddie describes the sea as a "fridge". What does he say to support this metaphor? [2 mks]
- [2] In what way is what has happened to the toheroa a good illustration of the need to be careful in taking food from the sea? [2 mks]
- [3] Imagine you are a fisheries officer. Write a diary entry for one day on your job. Your diary entry must reflect information from the article. [4 mks]

One Day on the Beach - a conversation with Eddie Waitoa Sub-Total = 5 marks

- [4] Give the sequence of steps [\[Help! What is this?\]](#) the Fisheries Officers take when they want to question someone. You should take between 5 and 10 steps. [5 mks]

A Gift from Tangaroa - a conversation with Kiwi te Ngaio Sub-Total = 5 marks

- [5] Compose 5 questions (and give the answers!) related to the seafood mentioned in the article. [5 mks]
- [6] Read page 28. Sara answers one of Kiwi Te Ngaio's questions correctly. Can you think of a reason Kiwi said she was correct? [2 mks]
- [7] Who is Tangaroa, and in what way is he valued by Maori? [2 mks]